

NPAIRC | International Research Conference 2026 | National Police Academy Sri Lanka

Guidelines for Snapshot/Story Telling Presentation

1. The time allocated for your presentation is 12 minutes followed by a 3-minute question and answer session (Presentation time limits may vary based on track preferences).
2. Please note that the presentation should be in English or Sinhala.
3. Presenters should ensure that the presentation is clear, engaging, and easy for the audience to follow, with a logical beginning, development, and conclusion.
4. Presenters should be mindful of ethical considerations, privacy, dignity, and confidentiality, particularly when using stories involving individuals or vulnerable groups.

General Guidelines

1. You are expected to be in the venue 15 minutes before the scheduled commencement of the session. The schedule and venue for your presentation can be found in the programme book available on the National Police Academy website. If you require further information, please contact the relevant Track Co-chair.
2. At the end of each session a Best Presenter for the respective session will be chosen. All presentations will be evaluated by a panel of judges by using a criterion recommended by the respective tracks. The judge's decision will be final, and no clarification will be given.
3. The presentation should be clear, concise, and directly relevant to the submitted research paper/abstract.
4. Presenters should strictly adhere to the allocated presentation time. The session chair may intervene if the presentation exceeds the allocated time.
